"Quality Results Value"

Thank you for all you do every day for our clients, business partners, company and our people. In 2018 we focused on several improvements to AcisTek's brand. Some of these included a brand new headquarters office space in Crystal City, and a totally revamped Corporate Website and Corporate LinkedIn Page.

In 2019 we're building on this by defining and marketing the AcisTek brand to prospective and current clients, business and technology partners, and potential employees. One of the subtle updates we're making is the tag line in the auto signature of our AcisTek email signatures. Today for most it says "Empowerment Through Excellence". Very few people know what that means. We need something that everyone understands and supports what we're about.

That's why we're asking everyone to make the change to "Quality Results Value" With Quality Results Value we're telling the world (whether its potential clients, business partners or new hires) when you engage with AcisTek you'll receive the highest Quality (whether it's a deliverable on a project, a contract with a business partner, or the hiring experience a new hire receives) and you'll get Results (we'll deliver on time, complete and the way you want it) and we offer all this at a great Value (not the highest cost, or the lowest cost; our good rates combined with Great Quality and Results make us a Great Value).

Beyond our tag line which we're asking everyone to update in their email auto signatures today, we'll be promoting Quality Results Value on our Website, Corporate LinkedIn page, in presentations and proposals, in our recruiting efforts and beyond. We think this is a branding campaign we all can understand and get behind because this is what we're all doing every day.
